9:27 a.m. 5.0 Discussion and possible action: Review of the Board's 2026 Sunset Report

Committee

Discussion: Nilu Patel: Asked whether the phrase "but not limited to" should be included.

Loretta Melby: Clarified that the recommended action is not draft bill language and would not be included in the bill.

Reza Pejuhesh: Agreed with Loretta's explanation and stated he was not opposed to minor language adjustments.

Vicki Granowitz: Believed it would be helpful for the public to provide suggestions.

Loretta Melby: Explained that public input would occur during the legislative process.

Vicki Granowitz: Expressed concern that, based on her experience, the process may not realistically allow for that. She praised the report, noting its strong format, use of graphs and bullet points, and appreciated the work involved.

Nilu Patel: Echoed those sentiments.

Jovita Dominguez: Echoed those sentiments.

Loretta Melby: Outlined the November board meeting process related to the sunset discussion, with the goal of obtaining board approval for a January submission. Requested that all reviews be completed by November.

Motion: Vicki Granowitz: Motion to Recommend the Board's 2026 Sunset Report move to the Board for continued review with the suggested edits made by the Committee.

Second: Nilu Patel

Public
Comment for

DISCUSSION AND POSSIBLE ACTION: FUTURE ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE NURSING PRACTICE COMMITTEE

BRN Nursing Practice Committee | February 11, 2026

BOARD OF REGISTERED NURSING
Nursing Practice Committee Meeting
Agenda Item Summary

AGENDA ITEM: 8.0
DATE: February 11, 2026

ACTION REQUESTED: Discussion and possible action: Future roles and responsibilities of the Nursing Practice Committee

REQUESTED BY: Loretta Melby, RN, MSN
Executive Officer

BACKGROUND:

The Committee will discuss and clarify future committee roles, responsibilities, and expectations, as well as establish a clear and consistent process for information sharing between committees and Board. As committee work continues to evolve, there is a need to ensure that roles are clearly defined and that information is communicated efficiently, accurately, and in a timely manner. Establishing clear expectations will support effective decision-making, reduce duplication of efforts, and promote transparency and consistency across committees.

Agenda Item Summary

AGENDA ITEM: 9.0
DATE: February 11, 2026

ACTION REQUESTED: Information and discussion only: Overview of the National Council of State Boards of Nursing's (NCSBN) National Nursing Education Database

REQUESTED BY: Loretta Melby, RN, MSN
Executive Officer

BACKGROUND:

The National Council of State Boards of Nursing (NCSBN) has created a National Nursing Education Database. It is the first ever nursing education database providing sophisticated statistical analyses of U.S. nursing education programs.

Database Features:

- Provides an in-depth look at how different characteristics impact the performance of U.S. nursing education programs.
- Includes information about the program makeup, students, faculty and program directors.
- Shows how key quality indicators impact programs and how programs compare with each other.
- Allows filtering by degree, geography, ownership and enrollment to better understand the impacts of each.
